

KS4 DATA

2020 -2021

Overall progress of pupils in Key Stage 4

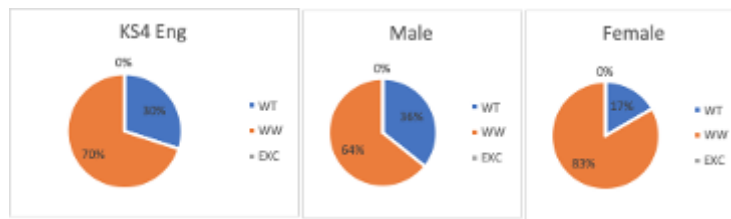

- 70% of pupils are making expected progress or above expected progress in English
- 75% of pupils are making expected progress or above expected progress in Mathematics
- 75% of pupils were assessed as being 'partially engaged' none were described as being 'fully' engaged
- 30% of pupils were described as being 'highly' impacted as a result of the pandemic

Key Stage 4

For the purpose of this dataset there are 20 pupils in the cohort, 14 of which are male accounting for 70% of the population, 6 are female accounting 30% of the population.

English

6 pupils were assessed as working towards their targets, 14 pupils were assessed as working within their targets and 0 were assessed as exceeding their targets. By gender there were 5 males and 1 female working towards their targets and 9 males and 5 females working within their targets no pupil in this cohort were assessed as exceeding their targets

Maths

5 pupils were assessed as working towards their targets, 15 pupils were assessed as working within their targets and 0 were assessed as exceeding their targets. 10 Males and 5 females were seen to be working within their targets and again none were demonstrating as exceeding their targets in this subject.

Conclusion

Key stage 4 pupils were the best performing cohort across the school, followed by Pupil Premium children.